DETAILED ACTION

The restriction requirement of 5/03/2006 is hereby VACATED in view of the following restriction requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 13-14, 16-18 and 20, drawn to DNA encoding gamma tocopherol methyl transferase and plants and seeds transformed therewith, classified in class 800, subclass 288.
- II. Claims 15, 19 and 21, drawn to oil from seeds, classified in class 424, subclass 776 for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are the isolated polynucleotides encoding a gamma methyl transferase and plants and seeds transformed therewith and the oil extracted from the transformed seeds of Group II; wherein the oil of Group II does not share the same structure, function or chemical composition of the isolated DNA of Group I and does not comprise the tDNA of the plants and seeds of Group I.

The claims are directed to 2 independent and distinct nucleic acid sequences of SEQ ID NO: 1 isolated from Synechocystis or SEQ ID NO: 3 isolated from Arabidopsis. Upon election of Group I, Applicant is required to elect a single nucleic acid sequence selected from SEQ ID NO: 1 isolated from Synechocystis or SEQ ID NO: 3 isolated from Arabidopsis. This requirement is not to be construed as a requirement for an election of species, since each of the nucleic acid sequences or amino acid sequences is not a member of a single structurally and functionally related genus, but rather constitutes an independent and patentably distinct invention. Separate searches and considerations would be required for examination of each of the nucleic acids.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
